The Internet by Leah Lubin

One day soon we will all be on the Internet.
With our own webpage,
each one of us,
searching and attracting,
competing for our audience on line.
With our own "Look and Sound."
More information shared.
More stories told.
More pictures previously not seen.
Now the new computer is the new star of the mini screen.
The electronic information age
is here to stay.
Don't forget to breathe the fresh air.
